A painting of a forest path leading to a body of water with a small boat. The path is covered in fallen leaves and leads through tall trees with green and yellow foliage. In the distance, a small white boat is on the water, and a person is visible on the shore. The scene is peaceful and serene.

Presenting . . . Valkyrian 1981

As four years draw to a close, we wish to thank the administrators, teachers, and other staff members at Vailsburg High School who have guided us along the way. Growing up is never easy, but because of the efforts of many fine unselfish people, we are a little wiser, a little smarter than yesterday. We know now that the sharp word, the call to a parent, and the too-long homework assignment are a way of saying, "I care about you. I want you to be somebody someday."

Before we say goodbye, we especially wish to thank Miss Theresa S. David, principal of Vailsburg High School. In our four years at Vailsburg High School we have seen Miss David transform this school from a place where "fooling around" was the order of the day into a place where real learning and growth takes place. Of course an able staff helps, but without Miss David's leadership, we would be floundering still. Thank you, Miss David.

Vailsburg High School Newark, New Jersey

In grateful appreciation we dedicate the 1981 Valkyrian to Mr. Paul Ziering. For many years Mr. Ziering has gone about his business of guiding young people; he has done this with a minimum of fanfare and credit. Many people will touch us in our lives, but few will leave a lasting impression. Mr. Ziering is a person we shall remember always for the little extra he always gave to us. Thank you, Mr. Ziering. You will remain in our memories always.

Self-Reliance

That odd state of mind wherein we fitfully and teasingly remember some previous scene or incident, of which the one now passing appears to be but the echo and reduplication.

Misery is . . .

Going to school on a rainy day.

Having a class with freshmen.

Going to school without a pen, pencil, etc.

Having a fire drill on a cold day.

Being caught in a hall sweep.

Seeing the teacher whose class you just cut.

Finding out you are not graduating.

But,

Happiness is . . .

Finding out your teacher is absent on the day of a test.

Seeing Vailsburg beat West Side in football.

Arranging a prom date.

Getting out of school early enough to see your favorite soap opera.

Getting a snow day on Monday or Friday or any day.

Finding out you are graduating.

UNFORGETTABLE ARE SUMMER BLISSES,
HOT BALMY NIGHTS AND BUTTERFLY KISSES.
ANXIETY AND FEAR ARE SO FAR AWAY.
TROUBLES ARE SAVED FOR ANOTHER DAY.

HUES AND TONES OF BROWN, RED, AND GOLD,
AUTUMN LEAVES ARE A SIGHT TO BEHOLD.
THE CRISP AIR SENDS A CHILL UP ONE'S SPINE.
THE AIR'S LOVELY SCENT IS SIMPLY DIVINE.

VISIONS OF ICICLES AND GLIMMERY SNOW,
EVERYONE'S FACE HAS A WARM, HAPPY GLOW.
THE NIGHTS FALL WITH SUCH A SHARP CHILL.
ALL SEEMS CALM AND ALL IS STILL.

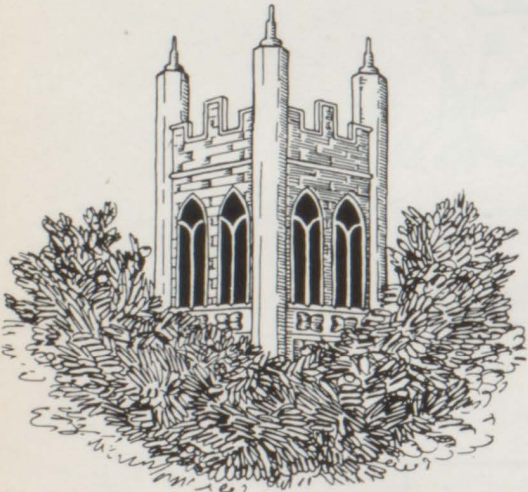

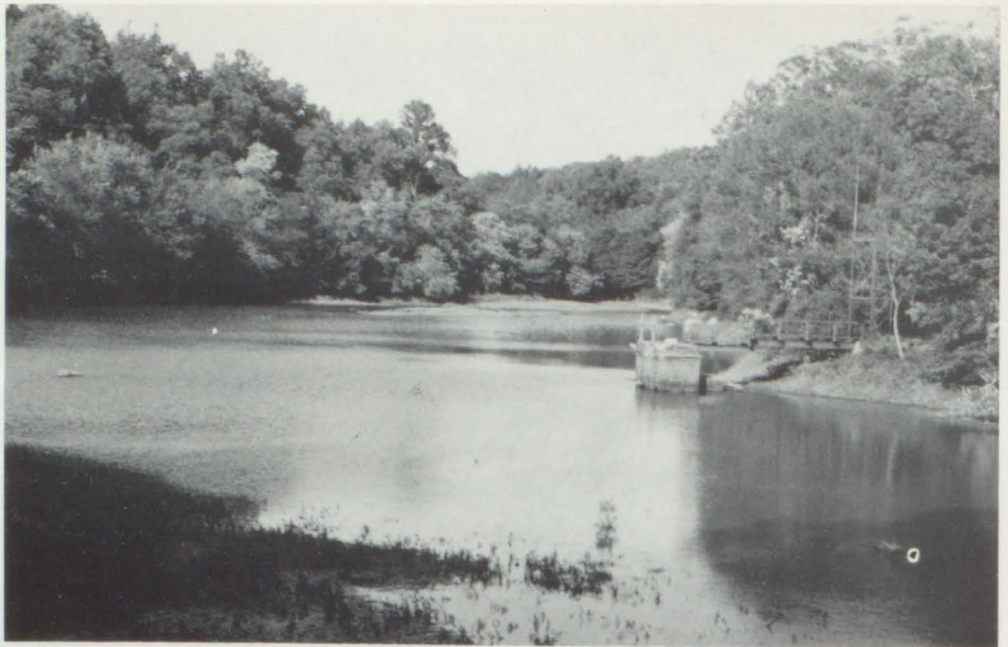

CLOCKS GO AHEAD AND OUR DAYS BECOME LONG.
LIFE IS A FRESH NEW SONG.
THE REBIRTH OF NATURE BEGINS TO TAKE PLACE.
ALL SEEM TO POSSESS SUCH FRESHNESS AND GRACE.

TRACEY PERUO

IN THE LAST CENTURY A MAN NAMED HENRY DAVID THOREAU DISCARDED HIS WORLDLY BELONGINGS SO THAT HE MIGHT LIVE AN EXISTENCE DELIBERATELY, "TO FRONT ONLY THE ESSENTIAL FACTS OF LIFE, AND SEE IF I COULD NOT LEARN WHAT IT HAD TO TEACH, AND NOT, WHEN I CAME TO DIE, DISCOVER THAT I HAD NOT LIVED." PERHAPS IN 1981 IT IS NOT SO EASY TO LEAVE THE AFFAIRS OF EVERYDAY LIFE BEHIND. THUS WE LEARN TO COPE, TO COMMISERATE, AND TO SHARE. WE COME TOGETHER IN MANY PLACES, FROM STREET CORNERS TO CONFECTIONERY STORES TO WOODLAND HAVENS. EACH OF US FINDS HIS OWN LITTLE "HANGOUT," HIS OWN LITTLE CORNER OF THE WORLD WHERE THE MUNDANE ANNOYANCES OF DAILY LIFE LOSE THEIR AGGRAVATING INTENSITY.

THIS LOOK AT THE PLACES WE GO IS DEDICATED TO THE BELIEF THAT WE ALL NEED A LITTLE SPACE TO MOVE IN COMPANY AND ALONE; WE ALL NEED A LITTLE AIR TO BREATHE IN COMPANY AND ALONE. ISN'T IT TRUE THAT OUR PRECIOUS ENVIRONMENT NEEDS OUR CONSTANT NURTURING AND OUR ABIDING LOVE?

AS MR. THOREAU STATED IN HIS CLASSIC WALDEN, "I HAD THREE CHAIRS IN MY HOUSE: ONE FOR SOLITUDE, TWO FOR FRIENDSHIP, THREE FOR SOCIETY."

The Vailsburg Vikings enjoyed one of their finest seasons in years. Undoubtedly, All-Essex Captain Joe Lane and All-Suburban selections Chris Bandy and Jimmy Norris will be missed next year. On the brighter side, however, Coach Jones is looking forward to the development of several promising underclassmen. The Vikings finished second in the city and eighth in the county, so one can expect many successful years ahead!

White posts triple as Vailsburg wins

Ywanakee White was a triple winner in the junior class division as Vailsburg won the first Sayreville Girls' Invitational Track and Field meet yesterday at the Borough Hall field in Sayreville.

White, who missed the recent NJSIAA group championships because of illness, won the 800-meter run in 2:26.3, the 1,500 meter run in 5:04.5 and the 3,000 meter run in 10:51.1 as Vailsburg defeated the host school, 69-58.

The meet was decided in the final event, the 400-meter run. Lisa Durden and Monique Gaines finished 1-2 for Vailsburg in the junior race. Phyllis Graves placed second to Joann Clark of West Side in the senior event and Eldia Johnson took a fourth in the freshman-sophomore race.

The track team at Vailsburg High School started this year impressively by capturing the city-cross country title. Ywanakee White paced the Vailsburg team with an individual title.

The indoor season opened with a title in the Queen of Peace Invitational and the Morris Catholic Invitational. Senior Phyllis Graves impressed with her performance (Champion Half Mile). Coach Tonero is enthusiastic and confident about this team.

When one talks to Coach Reilly about his basketball team, one is talking about a team in the truest sense of the word. There is no one player who is the star; there is a very nice balance on the team. The team is shorter than most of its competition, so it relies on defense. Senior Tony Dasher led the team in this department.

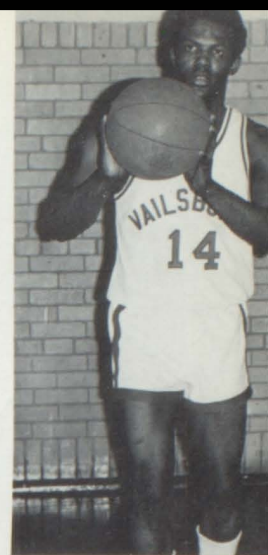

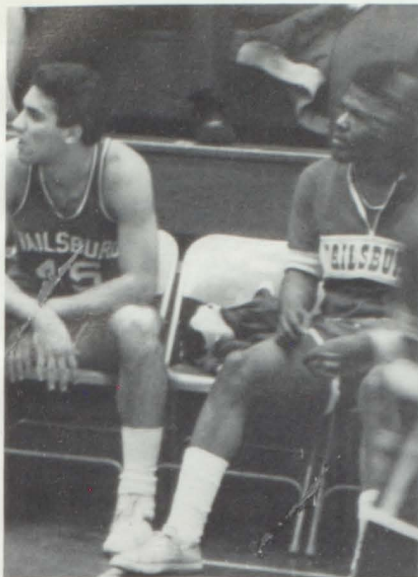

Congratulations to Coach Reilly on his one hundredth career win!
